
Poster Sessions

Poster Sessions are offered on Friday and Saturday in the hotel atrium. Come browse through the tables, pick up handouts, and stop by to visit. These “mini-exhibits” expose you to a lot of great information in a short time.

Friday, November 20, 8 to 9 a.m.

- ELMC Storytime: A Hospital Reading Program for Children
- My Story Rests Here
- Learning Styles and Your Library
- Libraries in the Nooks and Crannies of Colorado
- Need Info? Have a Mobile Phone? Text a Librarian!
- Colorado Children's Book Award
- No Money? No Problem!
- San Luis Valley Digitization Project
- Special Populations and Issues Committee 2009 Community Conversations
- Computing in the Cloud: Using Google App Engine for Academic Libraries
- Cataloging Icky Things
- What is Reader Development?
- Expand your Professional Horizons
- Colorado Libraries Collaborate! An Overview
- Bibliotecas de Guatemala

Saturday, November 21, 8 to 9 a.m.

- The Power of Storytelling: Rocky Mountain Storytellers Conference
 - Academic Librarian Satisfaction with AskColorado
 - Digitization and Accessibility Challenges for an Oil Shale Repository
 - Power On to Adult Summer Reading: Everyone Wins When Adults Read
 - Metadata Mapping From Both the Institutional and Consortial Perspectives
 - Free Resources for Schools from the Library of Congress
 - The Marmot Library Network, Inc.
 - Overhead Signage from the Arapahoe Library District
 - Global collaboration: planting libraries in Ethiopia
 - Teens, Librarians, and Social Networking
 - My Library is Every Library
 - “Two heads are better than one”: team teaching in the library setting
 - Which Book is Next?!
 - Capturing the Past: Digitizing a Historic Photograph Collection
 - Colorado Libraries 2.0
-