your library... powered by BCR.

Visit BCR at the Colorado Association of Libraries Conference
November 19-21, 2009 in Denver.

BCR brings libraries together and helps them keep pace with the continual evolution of technology and services.

We are the nation's oldest and most established multistate library cooperative. By partnering with BCR, you can expand your knowledge, reach and power. Our broad range of solutions and our hands-on personal attention enables us to give you effective and timely solutions for your daily challenges.

If your library is ready for more people, action and noise, start by contacting BCR.

Expand your knowledge.
Increase your power.
